- 19.04. WORKSHOP, LECTURE

Going Green Global Design Week presents to the public the most outstanding student design works and conceptual projects created at the Faculty of Design in 2022/2023. The inspiration for the projects are the values of NEB, but above all the various challenges of society (economic, demographic, environmental and technological) and they intervene in the field of urban planning; taking into the account accessibility, sustainability, social inclusion, revitalization of urban areas, mobility and safety.

As part of the presentations, the Student Council of the Faculty of Design will organize a GGG Talk on the topic "Urban Spaces for All", which will focus on the exchange of different views on the importance of incorporating sustainability and social responsibility in (interior) design. Together with experts and mentors, there will be a discussion about the tools and skills that are important for designers to contribute to a better life and community. GGG awards will be presented for achievements in the field of sustainable design and innovative green solutions which Faculty of Design annually presents.

GOING GREEN GLOBAL
DESIGN WEEK

16.04.

NEW EUROPEAN BAUHAUS FESTIVAL

GoinGreenGlobal Design Week takes place within the NEB Festival and celebrates the theme of Urban Spaces for All. The main highlights of this year's event focus on inclusion, accessibility, sustainability and social responsibility within the broad field of design. These themes are also directly related to NEB's values, and we are honored to be able to contribute our perspective on these important topics - with the presentation of the most outstanding student projects related to urban revitalization and sustainability, with GGG Design talks and various lectures and workshops, organized together with international experts. FD students, mentors and experts will lead a discussion on the importance of designers' tools and skills needed to contribute to a better life in our communities. In the closing ceremony, the Faculty will present GGG Awards to groups and individuals whose actions have significantly influenced the world around us to become a better place to live, work and study.
